

Consultation process and next steps

Consultation

The Project is committed to ongoing public engagement and we will be taking a proactive role in undertaking pre-application consultation on the proposed development. We will be holding two phases of consultation on the proposals, providing multiple opportunities to input feedback on the plans.

Informal consultation September 2022

We would like to understand the views of the local community on the early draft proposals so that further refinement and development of a 'Preferred Design' can take place.

If you have any further questions or comments about the proposals or the consultation process currently underway, you can get in touch with us and provide your feedback via:
